City Council of Paris Indicates the Spot Where the Washington Statue Will Be Erected.

Paris, Jan. 2. - The city council hus chosen the site for the equestrienne statue of Washington. It is at the intersection of Avenue d'Iena, and the Avenue du Trocadero. It is a fine site in the midst of the American quarter, with the place ou Trocadero, the Paints du Trocadero, the Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysees close by. The pedestal has also been approved by the council. The United States ambassador, Gen. Horace Porter, has had charge of the matter and has devoted much time to it. He found that the French people were greatly pleased with the idea of the statue, which is the result of efforts of patriotic American women, who called the necessary funds by subscription.

It is desired to unveil the statue July I next, the anniversory of Washington's guns are reported to be retiring towards (er, who left the city with warrants acceptance of his commission as generorvans Pont.

iat ilo You Pay That's a practical question! Are you paying too much? If you're paying a high price, you're probably paying as much for a name as for the coffee. Arbuckles' Coffee is a plain, substantial coffee with an excellent aroma and delicate flavor, sold in a substantial way at an honest price. You don't want better than good coffee, do you? You can't afford to pay twice the price that's necessary, can you? Then why not get Arbuckles'? Get right down to the coffee question and settle it now. By buying many millions of pounds we buy the best of many large plantations at a low price. We sell it to you at a low price because we would rather sell millions of pounds at a low profit than a thousand pounds at a big profit. Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee is the daily beverage on millions of tables. Why not on yours?

There's an additional consideration in the many substantial and useful articles that go with the coffee. Ask your grocer for it.

He'll tell you all about it. If he endeavors to substitute an imitation, insist on getting the genuine Arbuckles'-or go elsewhere.
